ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Identification of Ayurveda Medicinal Plants using Deep Learning ————— 7 Month

Worked with a team of four to develop BotanEye, a mobile application that classifies up to 25 different Ayurvedic plants and its medicinal benefits from leaf images using Convolutional Neural Network (CNN) model. Through innovative architecture and optimization methods the app achieved over 95% accuracy.

Crop Yield Prediction System using Machine Learning ————— 4 Month

Created a web-based prediction system for crop prediction and recommendations, using different agricultural datasets to optimise crop selection based on environmental and soil conditions of the particular area of land.
